

The Reality of Hate Crimes in 2010

A program in conjunction with

Without Sanctuary: Lynching Photography in America

Sponsored by

National Underground Railroad Freedom Center

Housing Opportunities Made Equal (H.O.M.E.)

Cincinnati Human Relations Commission (C.H.R.C.)

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Thursday, April 29
4 P.M. - 6 P.M.

National Underground Railroad
Freedom Center
Harriet Tubman Theater
50 East Freedom Way
Cincinnati, OH 45202

Presenters:

Michael Payton

Executive Director, Ohio Civil Rights Commission

Eric Thomas

FBI Special Agent

Elizabeth Brown

Executive Director, Housing Opportunities Made Equal

Al Gerhardstein

Civil Rights Attorney

Hate crimes continue to exist today. Join us for an interactive panel discussion on the reality of hate crimes and harassment in the Cincinnati area, efforts to expand Federal hate crimes law and how communities can prevent hate crimes.

No registration required for this free event

For additional information, contact Kendal Schwab at 513-721-4663 or kendal.schwab@uwgc.org

For further information, hours, and cost on the Without Sanctuary exhibit visit:
<http://www.freedomcenter.org/without-sanctuary/>

